

SILVER WOLF BAND

MusicNL Indigenous Artist / Group of the year (2020)

ECMA Indigenous Artist / Group of the year (2021)

ECMA Artist Innovator Of The Year Nominee (2022)

Silver Wolf Band is a four-piece Indigenous folk-rock band from Labrador. Lively, engaging, and self-assured performances of honest and sincere lyrical music is what makes Silver Wolf Band one of the most in-demand music groups from Labrador.

Their music is piano driven and rich in harmony. Lyrically, their songs are shaped and informed by family, community, love, and their homeland itself. They have been referred to as the “Wilco of Labrador” and their three album releases to date have garnered them a Music PEI award nomination, three Music NL award nominations, and a Summer Solstice Indigenous Music Award nomination.

With every performance, they offer their audience an uplifting and enthusiastic performance of original music, along with their renditions of popular favourites by celebrated Labrador songwriters and musicians.

There’s No Time is set to be released June 2nd 2022. Produced by Amelia Curran

Release Date: June 2nd 2022
Format: CD/Digital/Vinyl

There’s No Time

1. Settling Dust*
2. 18th Century
3. Falling Asleep
4. Lonely Fighter
5. Adlatok
6. Raven Hair
7. Your Name & Where You’re From
8. Geese & The Wind
9. Responsible
10. Over Under & Around
11. Old Mokami

2022 Appearances

- May 6th @ Lunenburg, NS Concert Series
- May 7th @ ECMA’s 2022 Rising Star Stage
- May 7th @ ECMA’s 2022 Showcase
- May @ Trails, Tales and Tunes Festival
- June 21st @ PEI Summer Guild Festival
- October @ Atlantic Presenters Association Tour
- November @ Northern Labrador Tour

“Because of Silver Wolf Band, we get to keep pieces of music like Woman of Labrador, Land Called Labrador, Old Mokami, and more, and we are lucky enough to have these songs without having to be dusty and archival.” -Amelia Curran.